Donner Sang Compter (DSC) is a non-profit, non-governmental organization (MOIM Registry 865) that raises awareness about voluntary blood donation in Lebanon.

Mission: to provide blood for patients in need through a centralized database and frequent blood donation campaigns.

Vision: to reach 100% voluntary blood donations in Lebanon.
DONNER SANG COMPTER

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Database of 18’000 voluntary blood donors
- 65’000 blood demands fulfilled through DSC Call Center
- 326 Blood Drives at universities, companies & crowded locations
- 14’200 blood units collected through DSC Mobile Units
DSC VOLUNTEERS
WHAT DO THEY DO?

- Recruiting Donors
- Organizing Blood Drives
- Spreading awareness
- Researching on Social Media
- Public Relations
- Leading teams of younger volunteers
- Managing the operations at Executive Committee and Board
How to involve volunteers?
How to motivate them?
How to thank them?
PROBLEMS TO BE DISCUSSED

DONORS

- How to recruit donors?
- How to retain potential donors?
SESSIONS AND WORKSHOPS

Tips on Donor Recruitment

Tips on Donor Retention

Team Dynamics
SESSIONS AND WORKSHOPS

The importance of volunteers in blood donation

Building a global coalition

Team Building Activities
SPEAKERS

Gavin Evans
Executive Director of Global Blood Fund
Gavin worked for 15 years at England’s NHS Blood and Transplant, approaching 2 million individuals, with all matters related to the recruitment, retention and management of donor. He is highly involved in many organizations based in UK and US and is currently the executive Director of Global Blood Fund and board member.

Gloria Abdo
Student Affair Coordinator, St. Joseph University
Having a Master’s degree in Human resources management, Gloria has been working closely since 2003 with youth in schools and universities. She is currently the student affair coordinator at the St. Joseph University in Lebanon, and a lecturer about “Social Animation” inciting civic engagement.

Yorgui Teyrouz
Founder and President, Donner Sang Compter
Yorgui, a former Lebanese Red Cross paramedic volunteer and scouts leader, initiated a centralized database of voluntary blood donors in Lebanon in 2006. He founded “Donner Sang Compter” in 2010 that has currently 18’000 registered blood donor and more than 250 volunteer promoting the voluntary blood donation cause.
LEBANON AND SAFETY

- Staying in a very calm and peaceful village
- 45 KM away from the city, Beirut
- Secure Accommodation
- Transportation provided from/to the Airport
- Private rooms and closets
- Accommodation available for early comers
JEITA GROTTO

- One of the most fascinating places in Lebanon
- Two interconnected crystallized caves
- Top candidate “New 7 Wonders of Nature”
HARISSA

- Most visited sanctuary in Lebanon
- Statue of the Virgin Mary
- Staircase of 104 steps leading to the statue
- Chapel in the base
The city where the Phoenicians invented the first alphabet
Extensive archaeological investigations
Oldest continuously inhabited city in the world
THANK YOU! YALLA!
REGISTER BEFORE 31 MAY